

Southernfare Festival

December 29 – January 2

So, Covid has once again caused disruption to our way of life, for the time being at least. Having said that, the team at Southern Naturally have been beavering away and making the club grounds picture perfect for the upcoming festival.

The festival is being held December 29 of this year through until January 2, 2022.

Festival information is available on the gonatural website, including the registration form and the programme.

If you need additional information, please contact the club directly on southernfare@gonatural.co.nz

As mentioned above, a lot of work has been undertaken at the club making it a great place to be this coming Christmas. Below are a few photos taken recently.
